THE LANGUAGE OF FLOWERS AT THE PARK

At Park Hyatt Saigon, hotel lobby is a space of imagination, where the WOW moment starts and ends. And flowers are the catalysts to keep that moment alive. Hotel lobby flower arrangements play a significant role in our signature guest experiences as they evoke a sense of luxury, extend a warm welcome and bring the comfort of a home away from home. Flowers can be a message from the heart, a mood enhancer and an essence of the hotel. The visual and aromatic sensation of flowers make a statement in itself and represent an assembly of memories of a stay.

Conceptualised by Alfie Lin, a master of contemporary floral design who gained his international reputation for the floral setting for "King of Mandopop" - Jay Chou's wedding and "Father of Interior Design in Hong Kong" - Kenneth Ko's gala dinner, floral installations at The Park speak the language of art and elegance. With the philosophy "to bring nature to the hotel", Alfie integrates Oriental and Western floral aesthetics to emphasize the French Colonial architecture while upholding the values of Vietnam's proud heritage.

Sophisticated yet understated, splendid yet quietly tasteful, welcome to our floral fantasy at The Park!

Proceed to the FITO Museum, which has an impressive collection of 3,000 items related to the development of traditional Vietnamese medicine.

Drive along the herbal street and visit a Chinese physician, learn about variety of herbs before making the last stop at a famous Chinese temple.
