Chef's Choice

CANARD Á L'ORANGE AT SQUARE ONE

Those who fancy French cuisine will gladly find at Square One restaurant a selection of up-market French brasserie styled fare.

Prepared by Chef Étienne Laffaille, the canard á l'orange is one of the most classical French dishes on the menu for guests to savour. The duck breast is prepared by the sous-vide method to ensure it retains its moisture through the cooking process.

In addition, canard á l'orange is served table side as our service team slices and completes the dish in front of our guests. This experience encourages interaction, Instagram moments and honours the traditional French art of table side service.

A NEW CHAPTER AWAITS

As the Luxury Redefinition project continues in the summer of 2019, expect nothing but the essence of future redefined luxury at Park Hyatt Saigon and our Park Lounge.

THE FRENCH MANSION BY THE OPERA HOUSE

A sanctuary of calm, curating intimate and luxury experiences for those it serves, Park Hyatt Saigon is a destination in itself. Its timeless architecture is French colonial in inspiration and it houses a prestigious collection of exquisite Vietnamese art, artifacts and antique furniture. Known as the French Mansion by the Opera House, the hotel is intimate, residential, elegant and bespoke.

At Park Hyatt Saigon, it is in our nature to continually explore and develop our refined home-away-from home. We are as such, both honored and delighted to disclose our latest chapter of hotel enhancements, focusing on our ground floor public areas and Park Lounge starting this June 2019. These enhancements are not limited to refining the hotel's design, but also include significant improvements in service.

EMBELLISHING THE CHARACTER OF PARK HYATT SAIGON

The Luxury Redefinition will continue to embellish the character of Park Hyatt Saigon and include enriching the hotels art and furniture collection, carpets, rugs, and decorative chandeliers. These improvements and redecoration of the hotels interior coupled with new lighting both within and outside the hotel, will give Park Hyatt Saigon an understated sparkle and glow.

The true ethos of Park Hyatt is to respect and honor the past whilst keeping an eye to the future. Vibrant, contemporary and exquisite artworks from talented raising artists will be added to our collection, displayed alongside the old masters who already reside in the mansion. It is our desire to create an intimate home suited to differing generations.

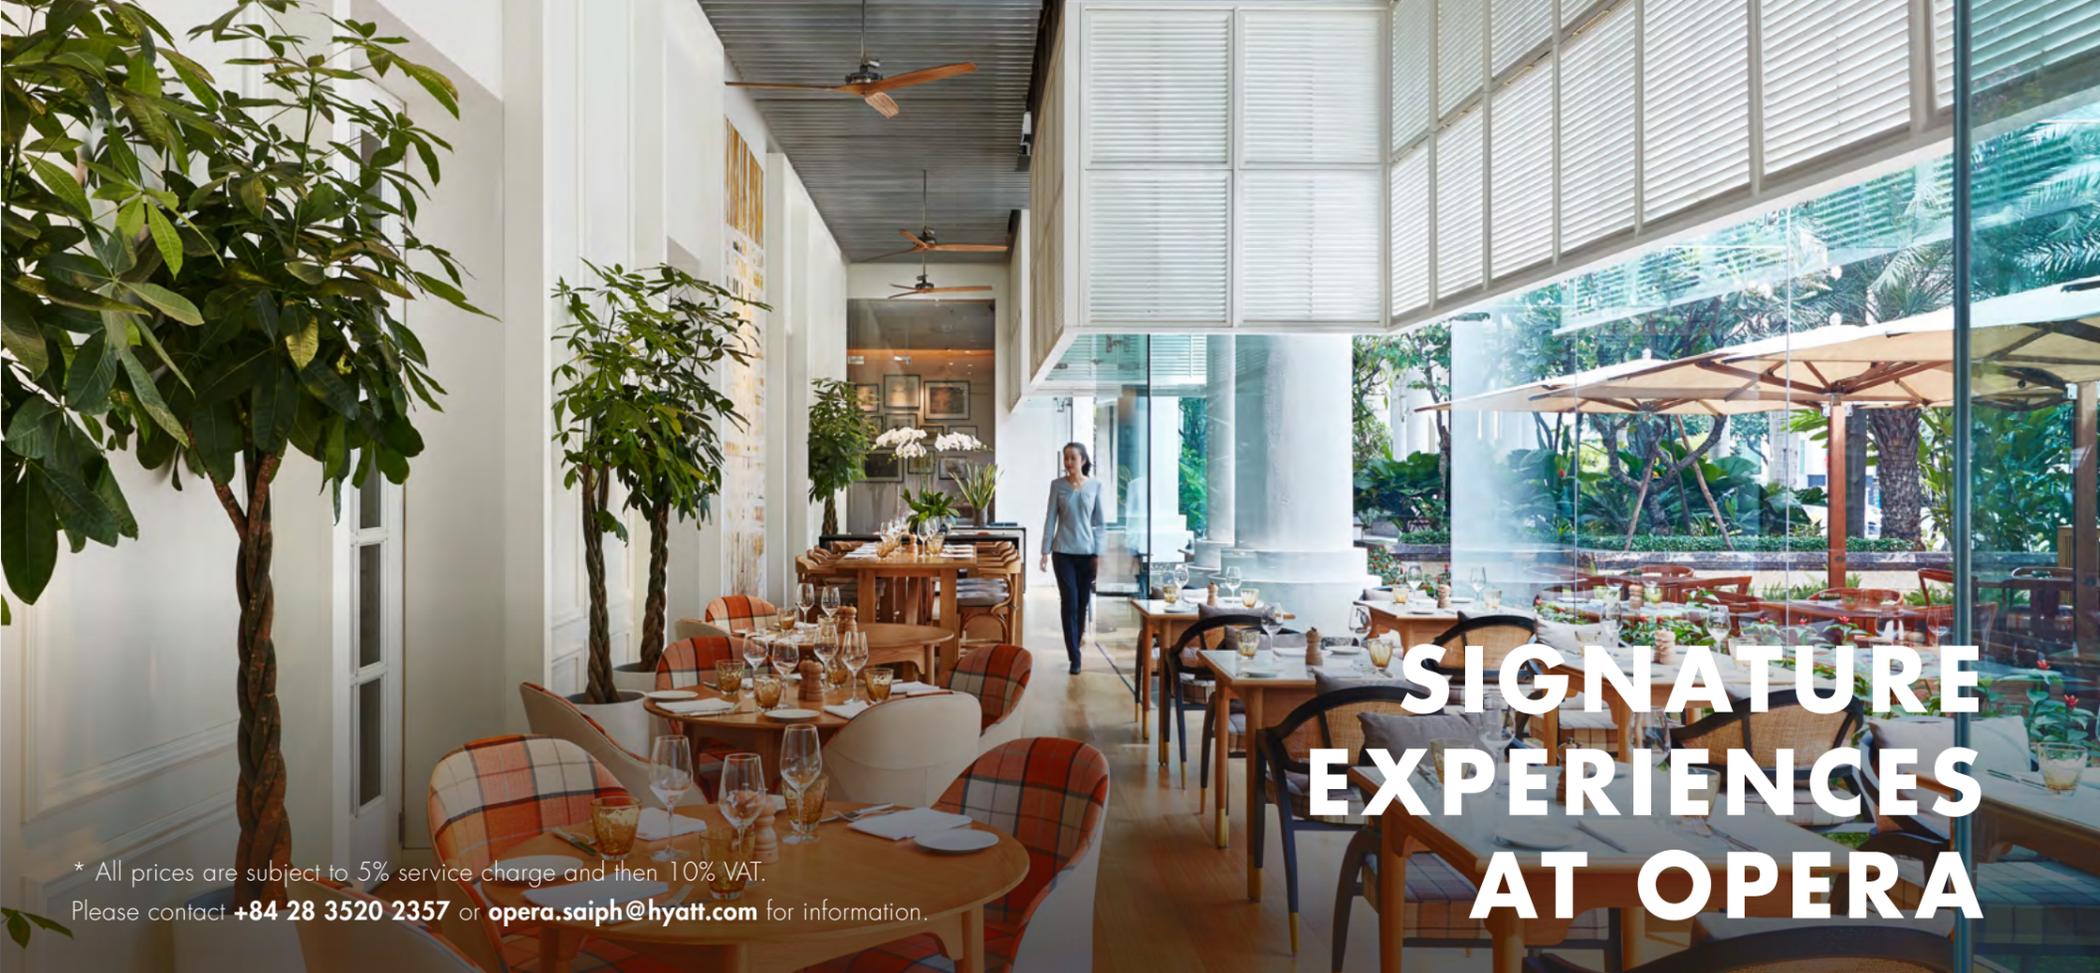

PARK LOUNGE – A PLACE TO BE SEEN

Come to Park Lounge after the Luxury Redefinition project, and be transported on a new journey, signature furniture from France, sparkling wall sconces from Germany as well as our new artworks adorn the walls. New signature experiences including a premium champagne collection, fresh tea infusions and special health-focused menu will feature. Not only ideal for social and business gatherings, the venue is also an elegant nightlife destination with sophisticated live entertainment during evening hours.

HOTEL BUSINESS AS USUAL

During the upgrade of Park Lounge, our Opera Bar and Verandah will serve our well renowned afternoon tea. We certainly do not want to deprive people of this small pleasure. With Opera being an "all-Italian" venue, a new Italian styled Afternoon Tea handcrafted by Pastry Chef Frederic Guinot and his Pastry team will be on offer. Similar to Park Lounge we will also serve up tea, coffee and pastries there throughout the day, and in the evenings wine and cocktails alongside our Aperitivo menu.

The hotel restaurants and bars including Opera restaurant offering authentic Italian dishes, Square One restaurant serving French and Vietnamese cuisine, and 2 Lam Son bar, one of the top nightlife's destinations will be open as usual. All other event venues including the Ballroom, Guest House, Drawing Rooms and Pool House, will still be available for group meetings or social events.

* All prices are subject to 5% service charge and then 10% VAT.
