Chef's Choice

WHOLE ATLANTIC DOVER SOLE MEUNIÈRE STYLE

When asked to choose one favourite dish from the French menu at Square One, Chef de Cuisine Étienne Laffaille gladly recommended the Whole Atlantic Dover Sole Meunière Style.

The sole is gutted and the skin removed, quickly rinsed under cold water to remove any scales, then patted dry and generously rubbed with flour. Then, it is browned to perfection on each side with French butter and seasoned with salt and pepper. When the sole is ready, the chefs will set it aside to rest before adding butter, a splash of lemon juice and pulp, parsley and toasted croutons. The dish is served at the table in a classic manner on a warmer and garnished skilfully with potato fondant.

"It is for me the dish that defines classic French taste," remarked Chef Étienne. If you would like to try this dish and other French dishes, book a table at squareone.saiph@hyatt.com or call +84 28 3520 2359.

Art Corner

THE ROYAL LADY DONG KHANH

Embarking on the movement in reviving old artwork, artist Bui Huu Hung created this alluring piece of art featuring a Royal Lady during the time of Emperor Dong Khanh of the Nguyen Dynasty (1885 – 1889).

His artwork showcases the techniques of applying lacquer and polishing, which suggest his in-depth comprehension of historical legends and events.

Artist Bui Huu Hung depicts Royal Lady against an elusive background so as to manifest both the sentimentality and the ambiguous beauty of the personage. The artist's use of incense burners, vessels and manuscripts elicit abstract perspectives from viewers.
