THE FEAST FOR THE SENSES

Good news for gastronomy lovers, Le Petit Chef has decided to extend his stay at Square One restaurant in Saigon. This new and entirely innovative two-hour dining concept will bring visual mapping to the diner's table, using cutting-edge 3D visual technology to present the story of a small animated chef who is projected onto diners' plates to cook the food right in front of your eyes. Prepare yourself to be delightfully immersed into a continuous 3D-projected tale paired with sophisticated themed music, table patterns, props and decorations along each chapter of the story.

There will be two interesting shows at Square One which are Marco Polo and Le Grand Bistro. While Marco Polo is the little chef who goes around the world on a cooking adventure, Le Grande Bistro is centered around the chef's restaurant in France.

From Wednesday to Sunday, at the Kitchen Room located in Square One restaurant, there will be one show for lunch and two shows for dinner. You can treat yourself to different packages including the Business Class five-course menu at VND 2,300,000* per person, or upgrade to First Class for the premium five-course menu version for an additional VND 1,150,000* per person. A welcome drink is included and wine pairing packages are also available with Business Class Wine Pairing at VND 1,500,000* per person and First Class Wine Pairing at VND 2,500,000* per person. Limited to one communal table of 12 seats per show and all 12 guests will be sharing a table during the show.
