20 YEARS OF HERITAGE: A MANSION OF MEMORIES

Long before Park Hyatt Saigon became the epitome of luxury, the site was renowned as The Brink Hotel. In 1950, it stood as a sanctuary amidst tumultuous times, hosting American military generals and officers during the Vietnam War. Among its most notable guests was Adrian Cronauer, the charismatic radio DJ whose story inspired the iconic film Good Morning, Vietnam! From this very address, Cronauer's broadcasts transcended the airwaves to become a symbol of resilience and hope.

When the war ended, the mansion could have faded into memory, a relic of a past too heavy to carry. Yet, we chose a different path – one of revival and reimagination. This storied site was transformed into Saigon's first luxury hotel, a beacon of timeless elegance standing proud amidst a city reborn. The architect sought to embrace its colonial roots while breathing new life into the structure. The mansion was rebuilt to reflect the grace of a time gone by. Its soul was preserved and its timeless grandeur allow guests to lose themselves in the illusion that it has stood here for almost a century. And perhaps, in spirit, it has.

Standing at the crossroads of past and present, Park Hyatt Saigon is blessed with a location that is as iconic as the landmarks that surround it. The Opera House, standing as its stately neighbour, the Central Post Office, the Reunification Palace, and the Notre Dame Cathedral—all within reach, like old friends gathering for a reunion.

Today, Park Hyatt Saigon continues to honour its heritage while crafting new chapters of refined hospitality. It is here that we remember. And it is here that we continue to write the story of the city, of this mansion, and of all who come to call it home.

A LETTER FROM YOUR PARK FAMILY!

Dear distinguished guests, partners, and friends,

As the Year of the Snake gracefully arrives, bringing with it a sense of wisdom, transformation, and resilience, we find ourselves at a truly special moment in time. This year marks the 20th anniversary of Park Hyatt Saigon – a milestone that would not have been possible without your love, support and companionship.

Twenty years ago, we opened our doors with a vision: to become the Grande Dame of Saigon. Over the past two decades, that vision has blossomed into a legacy – one that has guided us to curate moments with excellence, where every detail, every gesture, and every experience reflects the highest standards of care and craftsmanship. Each visit, each smile, and each shared experience has shaped who we are today, and for that, we are deeply grateful for having you at the heart of everything we do.

As we reflect on the golden days gone by, our hearts are filled with anticipation for the journey ahead. The Year of the Snake is destined to be a time when we embrace the simple pleasure of being together. We are honoured to extend our heartfelt invitation to you to join us in 2025, a year of inspiring moments, meaningful celebrations, and enriching experiences.

Tet is an occasion for homecomings and reunions. While the city takes a gentle pause, your French Mansion remains open throughout the season, welcoming you with authentic Vietnamese hospitality and a host of activities designed to bring you comfort and joy. Thank you for letting us be part of your New Year celebrations. May you have all the great times, exciting adventures and special connections that lead you toward a year of fulfillment.

Here's to the next chapter, written together with you.

With heartfelt gratitude,
FRÉDÉRIC BOULIN
